

Active International Partnerships

- AIST concludes MOUs with world's leading institutes seeking to strengthen the international research
- AIST contributes to establishing the global system for sustainable development, serving as the hub of the international research network.
- AIST builds up efficient environment to collaborate with foreign researchers and provides opportunities for foreign personnel.

As of April 1, 2023