

Active International Partnerships

- AIST executes MOUs with world's leading institutes seeking to strengthen the global research networks.
- AIST establishes the global system for sustainable development, serving as the hub of the international research network.
- AIST builds up efficient environment to collaborate with foreign researchers and provides opportunities for foreign personnel.
- AIST strengthens the export control system and ensures the management.

As of December 2020